PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

March is Here ☺

We hope everyone enjoyed their winter break and are ready to come back and jump right back into their routines and it's full steam ahead until spring break in April. Many say this is the longest stretch, but it will also be quite busy. We have assessments to complete as we come to the end of the 2nd trimester, state assessment at some point for grades 3 & 4, "Books for Bikes", etc.

We are also thrilled to be starting swim lessons for our 4th graders at the Bangor Y along with our "Life Skills" children at Eddington. The partnership with the Y and our 4th grade lessons have been happening for a long, long time and we plan to continue that for many more years to come.

Ms. Bedore and Mrs. Perry have been and will continue to be busy putting our memory book together again this year. A flyer & envelope was sent home at both schools this week for students to order theirs. It is important if anyone wants one ($15) to get it back to your school as soon as possible. If anyone knows of a business interested in placing an ad in the book please have them call the school secretaries and I will get the information out to those businesses. Thanks☺

The Eddington School wants to welcome Mr. Landry, our new night time custodian and Mrs. Chambers who will be in the PK and life skills room offering her support to those children. Welcome welcome!!!!

Rabbit, Rabbit Day on Monday!!!! Remember before your feet hit the floor and you talk with anyone, say Rabbit Rabbit☺ You will have good luck for the month.
